

Guidelines for Auditions:

- Please read through the materials carefully for the instrument that you are auditioning on.
- You may choose a different piece of music to audition on, but the level of difficulty should be equivalent to the materials in the audition materials posted.
- We suggest that you practice auditioning by playing your piece(s) for your music teacher and others. This will help you feel more confident during the actual audition.